

Santa Susana Pass State Historic Park

is one of many parks across the nation hosting an AMERICA'S STATE PARKS FIRST DAY HIKE

organized by

Foundation for the Preservation of the Santa Susana Mountains
in cooperation with California State Parks

Kick off the 2017 New Year
on the right foot!

Show America you
your local state park.

Begin the New Year rejuvenating and connecting with the outdoors by taking a healthy hike on January 1, 2017 at a state park close to home. First Day Hikes offer a great way to get outside, exercise, enjoy nature and welcome the New Year with friends and family.

The SSPSHH Hike meets at 11 am at the Andora entrance at 9955 Andora St. just South of Lassen. California State Parks Volunteers will lead this moderate hike, – allow 2 to 3 hours, we will stay in the lower part of the park. Bring water, good shoes, hats and sunscreen are always good. Well behaved dogs with owners on leash are welcome.
